The Susquehanna River Basin Commission was created as an independent agency by a federal-interstate compact* among the states of Maryland, New York, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and the federal government. In creating the Commission, the Congress and state legislatures formally recognized the water resources of the Susquehanna River Basin as a regional asset vested with local, state, and national interests for which all the parties share responsibility. As the single federal-interstate water resources agency with basinwide authority, the Commission's goal is to coordinate the planning, conservation, management, utilization, development and control of basin water resources among the public and private sectors.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The author wishes to acknowledge those who made significant contributions to the completion of this project. Darryl Sitlinger, Daryl Valley, and Marc Neill constructed sampling equipment. Marc Neill assisted with sampler placement. Darryl Sitlinger, Kevin McGonigal, Susan LeFevre, Jennifer Orr, Daryl Valley, and Dawn Brandt collected field data and water quality and benthic macroinvertebrate samples for laboratory analysis. Darryl Sitlinger and Daryl Valley processed macroinvertebrate samples and Jeff Erikson provided identification expertise. The Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Protection, Bureau of Laboratories, in Harrisburg, Pa., conducted all laboratory analyses of chemical water quality. Holly Wolbert produced the map. Doreen McCabe edited, and David Heicher, Susan Obleski, and Susan LeFevre provided helpful reviews of this report. Additional thanks go to the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, which provided partial funding for this project.
